6. INSURANCE INDEMNITY AND THE PROCEDURE AND TERMS FOR THE CALCULATION AND PAYMENT THEREOF

6.1. An advance payment of the insurance indemnity or the insurance indemnity shall be paid to the Beneficiary.

6.2. The Insurer shall indemnify the Insured for the necessary expenses incurred in relation to reducing the Damage or following the Insurer's instructions irrespective of whether the measures taken have yielded positive results or not. Such expenses shall be indemnified in proportion to the ratio between the Sum Insured and the insured value irrespective of whether the total amount of the expenses and the Damage exceed the Sum Insured or not.

6.3. The insurance indemnity shall be reduced or not paid at all when:

6.3.1. the Insurer has the right to refuse to pay the insurance indemnity or to reduce it under the provisions of Sub-Clause 6.8 of the Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions if the Insured is in material breach of any of the obligations specified in Clause 5 hereof;

6.3.2. the Insured attempts to mislead the Insurer by forging facts that are of importance for establishing the causes of the Insured Event and/or the amount of the insurance indemnity;

6.3.3. the damages or any part thereof have been indemnified by a person responsible for the Damage; in such a case the insurance indemnity shall be paid upon deduction of the amount received by the Insured from such person.

6.3.4. The insurance benefit could be reduced or not paid, if the Insured has waived a claim to a person who is responsible for the damage or if this right of claim can no longer be implemented due to the Insured's fault.

6.4. The Insurer must apply all necessary efforts in order to investigate circumstances required to establish the fact and consequences of the Insured Event and the amount of the insurance indemnity. The insurance indemnity must be paid not later than within 30 calendar days from the day when all information and documents relevant to the establishment of the fact, circumstances and consequences of the Insured Event and the amount of the insurance indemnity are received.

6.5. The Insurer shall not be entitled to pay the insurance indemnity or to refuse to pay it without satisfying itself that the Insured Event has actually occurred and without verifying all the information available to the Insurer.

6.6. The Insurer must prove the circumstances releasing it from the liability to pay the insurance indemnity or entitling it to reduction of the insurance indemnity.

6.7. In case of disagreement on the amount of the insurance indemnity between the Insured and the Insurer upon the occurrence of an Insured Event, the Insurer shall pay, at the Insured's request, an amount equal to the undisputable amount of the insurance indemnity in case when the process of the determination of the exact amount of the insurance indemnity lasts longer than 3 months.

6.8. In the event of refusing to pay the Insurance indemnity or reducing the Insurance indemnity due to the violation of these Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions by the Insured, the Insurer must take account of the guilt of the Insured, severity of the violation of the Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions, the causal relationship between the violation and the Insured Event, and the scope of the Damage arising from the violation.

6.9. In the event of refusing to pay or reducing the Insurance indemnity, the Insurer shall furnish the Insured, the Beneficiary or the affected third party with a detailed and well-founded explanation of the reasons for such decision. If the Insurance indemnity is not paid within 30 calendar days from the date of the notice of the Insured Event, the Insurer shall inform the Insured/Beneficiary in writing about the course of the investigation of the Insured Event.

6.10. If the Insured is entitled to Insurance benefits under the Insurance agreements concluded with other Insurers, Insurance benefit shall be paid by each Insurer in proportion, not exceeding the total amount of damage with the exception of Insurance benefits for accidents during travel abroad.

7. OTHER AGREEMENTS

7.1. In case of a dispute over these Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions between the Insurer and/or the Policyholder and/or the Insured, the parties shall settle the dispute by means of negotiations in good faith. Should the parties fail to settle the dispute by means of negotiations within a reasonable term, each of the parties would have the right to go to court. Disputes shall be settled in courts of the Lithuania according to the procedure established by the law.

7.2. In cases not covered by these Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions, the parties shall follow the effective laws and other legal acts of Lithuania.

12.14. loss of organs (their functions) due to congenital or acquired deficiencies in the body, injuries caused by disease seizures (e.g. epilepsy), treatment of those diseases and consequences of their caused trauma;

12.15. expenses for further treatment when the Insured refuses to return from Abroad if, in the opinion of the Insurer and medical doctors, the health condition of the Insured allows this and this is purposeful.

13. INSURANCE INDEMNITY

The Insurer shall pay, within the limits of the Sum Insured:

13.1. expenses for the necessary medical aid at an outpatient and/or inpatient healthcare establishment;

13.2. expenses for medicines, bandaging and fixation materials prescribed by a medical doctor and necessary for the Insured's treatment;

13.3. expenses for urgent odontological aid up to the amounts referred to in Sub-Clause 3.1 of the Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions depending on Card type;

13.4. expenses for urgent transportation by special-purpose vehicles;

13.5. expenses for phone calls up to the amounts referred to in Sub-Clause 3.1 of the Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions depending on Card type;

13.6. indispensable repatriation expenses;
 13.7. reasonable hotel expenses and additional expenses related to returning from Abroad incurred in relation to the Insured and/or one accompanying person, who had to stay or travel with the Insured due to the Insured's health condition as recommended in writing by the medical doctor treating the Insured up to the amounts referred to in Sub-Clause 3.1 of the Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions depending on Card type. A decision on the necessity for an accompanying person shall be adopted by the attending medical doctor and experts appointed by the Insurer or by a representative authorised by the Insurer;
 13.8. reasonable travel and hotel expenses related to one close person's travelling to the Insured and returning back if, in the opinion of the attending medical doctor, there is a threat to the Insured's life due to an accident or disease during travelling. The visit of a close person to the Insured shall be agreed upon in advance with experts appointed by the Insurer or by a representative authorised by the Insurer;
 13.9. treatment expenses shall always be covered in the first instance.
 13.10. Reimbursement of medical expenses shall be primarily subject to the compulsory health insurance system shall be applied first. The insurer shall, in accordance with. Under the conditions of the present insurance terms and conditions, the Insurer shall reimburse the cost of treatment expenses which are not reimbursable by the compulsory health insurance system or in case they does not actually reimburse within the statutory time limits. In case the Insurer, based on the present Insurance Terms and Conditions, reimburses the cost of treatment expenses which the compulsory health insurance system had to be reimburse but were not reimbursed by the compulsory health insurance system, the Insurer shall be entitled to recover demand the amounts paid from the compulsory health insurance system.

13.11. If the Insured event related costs exceed the amount of Insurance, treatment, repatriation, assistance and other costs shall be reimbursed in order of priority. Costs exceeding the amount of Insurance shall be reimbursed by the Insured.

14. DOCUMENTS RELATED TO THE ACCIDENT

The Insured or his/her representative shall provide the Insurer with the following documents confirming the Insured event:

14.1. Patient documents and original invoices provided by medical institutions. These documents shall provide with the following information: Insured's full name, description of medical services provided on the day of the Insured event and the total cost of services rendered;

14.2. At the event of death of the Insured, a notarized death certificate or original certificate, original invoices of a transported corps or cremation abroad.

19.3. Long-term disability means a condition where the degree of disability, working capacity (loss of working capacity) or special needs are established for a period no shorter than 1 year.

19.4. Permanent disability means a condition where the degree of disability, working capacity (loss of working capacity) or special needs are established for a period no shorter than 2 years. If the Insured Person is first confirmed to have a long-term disability which is then extended, permanent disability shall mean a condition established for an uninterrupted period of at least 2 years.

19.5. If the Insured Person becomes disabled as a result of an insured event, an insurance benefit shall be paid. The amount of the insurance benefit to be paid is expressed as a percentage of the sum insured payable in the case of disability specified in Sub-Clause 3.1 of the Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions depending on Card type and is equal to:

19.5.1. Insurance benefits for Insured Persons from 18 years old to retirement age are calculated based on the degree of loss of working capacity (as a percentage):

19.5.1.1. In the event of permanent loss of working capacity, the Insurance benefit shall be equal to a part of the sum Insured in the case of disability equal to the lost working capacity (as a percentage), or

19.5.1.2. In the event of long-term incapacity for work, the Insurance benefit shall be equal to a part of the sum Insured in the case of disability equal to one-third of the lost working capacity (as a percentage). If the experts of the Insurer have no doubt about extension of long-term incapacity for work, the Insurance benefit payable in the case of permanent loss of working capacity may be paid (in such a case, the Insurance benefit for permanent disability shall not be paid once again);

19.5.2. Insurance benefits for Insured Persons up to 18 years of age shall be calculated in view of the degree of disability established:

19.5.2.1. The Insurance benefit in the event of a low degree of disability shall be equal to 40% of the sum Insured in the case of disability;
 19.5.2.2. The Insurance benefit in the event of a moderate degree of disability shall be equal to 70% of the sum Insured in the case of disability;
 19.5.2.3. The Insurance benefit in the event of a high degree of disability shall be equal to 100% of the sum Insured in the case of disability;
 19.5.3. The Insurance benefit in the event of disability of Insured Persons of retirement age shall be calculated in view of the determined special needs, provided that the special needs are established for a minimum period of 2 years (in the case of permanent disability only):
 19.5.3.1. In the event of the special need for compensation for vehicle acquisition costs and its technical adjustment costs or the special need for compensation for transport costs, the insurance benefit is equal to 10% of the sum insured in the case of disability or
 19.5.3.2. In the event of the special need for regular care (assistance), the Insurance benefit is equal to 30% of the sum insured in the case of disability or 19.5.3.3. In the event of the special need for regular nursing, the Insurance benefit is equal to 100% of the sum Insured in the case of disability.
 19.6. If the degree of disability, working capacity (loss of working capacity) or special needs determined by a competent authority raises reasonable doubts to the Insurer, the Insurer shall have the right to hire experts and/or specialists in the relevant field at its own expense and to pay the Insurance benefit based on the findings of the experts and/or specialists regarding the degree of disability, working capacity (loss of working capacity) or special needs of the Insured Person.

 19.7. The insurance benefit shall be paid in view of the established degree of disability, working capacity (loss of working capacity) or special needs of the Insured Person as at the date of payment of the Insurance benefit (provided that the disability is due to an Insured event).
 19.8. Where disability (a degree of disability or loss of working capacity) of the Insured Person was already established prior to the Insured event and the degree of disability has increased as a result of the Insured event, the insurance benefit shall be calculated based on the difference between the degree of disability or the degree of loss of working capacity as a percentage before and after the Insured event.
 19.9. Where any special needs of an Insured Person of retirement age are established prior to the Insured event, no disability Insurance benefit shall be paid to such a person.
 19.10. Disability for the Insured Person shall be established no less than 6 months and no more than 12 months from the date of the accident. If disability raises no doubt, the Insurer shall have the right to pay the Insurance benefit before the established deadline (in this case, the Insurance benefit for the established disability will not be paid once again afterwards).

SECTION IV. PERSONAL LIABILITY COVER

The General Terms and Conditions (Section I) shall apply to this Section (Personal Liability Cover) to the extent to which they do not contradict the provisions of this Section. The provisions of Clause 2 of the General Terms and Conditions (Section I) shall not apply to this Section (Personal Liability Cover), except for the grounds for release from payment of the insurance indemnity as stated in Sub-Clause 2.3.

20. TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

 22.2. unlawful negligent actions by the Insured while staying Abroad, as a result of which the Insured incurs indispensable and reasonable legal expenses.

23. NON-INSURED EVENTS

23.1. The Insurer shall be released from liability for the payment of the Insurance indemnity on the grounds for release from liability as stated in Sub-Clause 2.3 of General Terms and Conditions (Section I), except the events, when Damage to the third party's health (including death) had been made due to guilt of responsible person.

 23.2. Civil liability for the Damage shall not be covered if the Damage:
 23.2.1. was done to the Insured himself/herself;
 23.2.2. arose from actions of the Insured as a professional participating in a competition and was inflicted upon other participant in such competition;
 23.2.3. arose during hunting or target-shooting;
 23.2.4. arose due to improper execution or non-execution of a contract (contractual liability). Where the liability for the Damage under the contract is higher than that under the law without a contract, the insurance cover shall be valid to the extent of the liability arising under the law without a contract;
 23.2.5. is related to the control, use, loading and unloading of vehicles (the term "vehicle" means a mechanism designed for the carriage of people and/or cargoes; vehicles also include tractors and other self-propelled mechanisms and aircraft) except for the liability related to the control and use of such land vehicles as bicycles, motorbikes and four-wheel motorcycles as well as such water vehicles as water motorcycles and such non-self-propelled vessels as yachts up to 80 gross register tonnage, sailboats, kayaks, canoes, rubber boats up to 130 kg carrying capacity, tourist floaters, floating cottages, water bicycles;

 23.2.7. to money, securities, bars, schlichts, nuggets, semi-finished pieces of industrial or laboratory purpose, and articles of precious metals (gold, platinum, silver), diamonds, jewellery and other household articles of gold, silver, platinum and metals of platinum group, gemstones, pearls as well as scrap thereof, works of art, antiques, articles having numismatic, sphragistic, heraldic or philatelic value, orders or medals or collections or sets thereof or other formations thereof having artistic, historical or another cultural value;
 23.2.8. the Insured was wilfully intoxicated with alcohol, narcotic, toxic or other psychotropic substances or took medicines of strong action without a medical doctor's prescription, and this has a causal relationship with the causing of the Damage to third parties;
 23.2.9. arising directly or indirectly from or due to Employers liability, contractual liability, or liability to a member of an Insured Person's family, or travelling companion;
 23.2.10. arising directly or indirectly from or due to Animals belonging to or in the care, custody or control of an Insured Person;
 23.2.11. arising directly or indirectly from or due to pollution or contamination;
 23.2.12. arising directly or indirectly from or due to passing on an infectious disease.

24. INSURANCE INDEMNITY

24.1. Losses incurred by a third party shall be indemnified for within the limits of the Sum Insured. Losses shall be indemnified for by paying to the third party the insurance indemnity, the amount of which shall be determined according to legal acts governing civil liability.

24.2. The Insurer shall also indemnify, within the limits of the Sum Insured, for expenses related to the consideration of and replies to the claim; however, the amount of claim shall be paid in the first instance.

24.3. The Insurer shall undertake to pay the indispensable and reasonable legal expenses related to negligent actions by the Insured while staying Abroad.

24.4. If the Insured has indemnified the affected third party for the Damage, the Insurer shall pay the insurance indemnity to the Insured.

24.5. If the Sum Insured is smaller than the total amount of the Damage done to all affected third parties, the insurance indemnity shall be allocated to such third parties in proportion to the Damage done to each of them.

24.6. Where the Insured is guilty for the Damage jointly with other persons, the Insurer shall pay only the share attributable to the Insured, irrespective of whether or not the Insured has indemnified the claimant, in full or in part, for the Damage done jointly with other persons.

24.7. When approaching the Insurer in respect of an event, the Insured shall submit a notice stating:

24.7.1. when, where and under what circumstances the event, which has resulted (or may result) in the filing of a claim, took place; 24.7.2. surnames, legal names, and addresses of persons who/ which have filed (or may file) a claim against the Insured;

24.7.3. expected, estimated amount of damages (claim).

24.8. If the amount of the civil liability claim filed by a third party exceeds the Sum Insured, the expenses referred to in Sub-Clause 6.2 of these Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions shall be indemnified for in proportion to the ratio between the Sum Insured and the civil liability claim.

24.9. If the Insured does not agree with the Insurer's recognition of third party claims as justified claims, reaching of an amicable agreement with third parties, or satisfaction of third party claims, the Insurer shall not pay for any additional expenses arising from such disagreement (including interest if any);

24.10. Extended reporting period for claims notification to Insurer is 6 months after policy expiration date.

25. LEGAL EXPENSES NOT SUBJECT TO INDEMNIFICATION:

25.1. expenses to which the Insurer has not given its prior consent;

25.2. fines, penalties (civil, penal, administrative, and contractual) and other sanctions of similar nature;

25.3. legal expenses related to the actions of the Insured taken prior to the coming into effect of the insurance cover.

SECTION V. BAGGAGE AND TRIP DELAYS

The General Terms and Conditions (Section I) shall apply to this Section (Baggage and Trip Delays) to the extent to which they do not contradict the provisions of this Section. The provisions of Clause 2 (Non-Insured Events) of the General Terms and Conditions (Section I) shall not apply to this Section (Baggage and Trip Delays), except for the grounds for release from payment of the insurance indemnity as stated in Sub-Clause 2.3.

26. OBJECT OF INSURANCE

28.2. Non-insured events shall include submission of a claim for compensation for a delay in delivering baggage due to decisions adopted by authorities (customs, police, etc.).

28.3. Baggage delay while the Insured was returning to the Permanent place of residence;

28.4. Baggage delay when the Insured was traveling without transportation agreement (travel ticket) with the Carrier;

28.5. The Insurer shall be released from liability for the payment of the insurance indemnity on the grounds for release from liability as stated in Sub-Clause 2.3 of the General Terms and Conditions (Section I).

29. INSURANCE INDEMNITY

29.1. Indemnity shall be paid for delay in delivering baggage starting from the 4th (fourth) hour of delay; if Insured had costs due to baggage delay. Costs are reimbursed up to the amount of the Sum Insured.

29.2. Indemnity shall be paid for postponement of trip for each postpone hour starting from the 4th (fourth) hour of delay; if Insured had actual costs due to trip delay, but not longer than until trip cancellation. Costs are reimbursed up to the amount of the Sum Insured referred to in Sub-Clause 3.1 of the Travel Insurance Terms and Conditions depending on Card type.

29.3. The Insured shall submit the following documents when approaching the Insurer:

29.3.1. travel ticket (copy);

29.3.2. baggage receipt-ticket (copy);

29.3.3. boarding pass (copy);

29.3.4. written confirmation by the carrier that the flight/ship trip was delayed and/or delivery of baggage was delayed.

SECTION VI. BAGGAGE LOSS COVER

The General Terms and Conditions (Section I) shall apply to this Section (Baggage Loss Cover) to the extent to which they do not contradict the provisions of this Section. The provisions of Clause 2 (Non-Insured Events) of the General Terms and Conditions (Section I) shall not apply to this Section (Baggage Loss Cover), except for the grounds for release from payment of the insurance indemnity as stated in Sub-Clause 2.3.

30. TERMS AND DEFINITIONS

30.1. Damage to Baggage – destruction of or damage to or loss of baggage belonging to the Insured, except theft.

30.2. Theft – unlawful actions by a person in order to steal, rob, take possession of or otherwise misappropriate baggage or parts thereof, resulting in the Damage.
